IRS form 4797 is comprised of three parts. Depending on the type of asset you're claiming, you'll need to account for the asset in either part I, part II, or part III. When you look at each part of the form, though, you're directed to the IRS form 4797 instructions to determine what type of property belongs in that section. And a quick look at the instructions will reveal that they're relatively complicated.
